

XM radio has been a wonderful addition to my life. When driving I can stay in touch with news, weather and music no matter where I am. Instead of searching up and down the dial while driving I have XM in tune so I stay focused. If localradio put out as useful a product I would not be willing to pay for it. Please let XM expand it's services, please do not limit what they can provide.